CONFERENCE 2021: THE MEETING PLACE

WELCOME MESSAGE FROM YOUR 2021 CONFERENCE PLANNING COMMITTEE

The 2021 Canadian Health Library Association / Association des bibliothèques de la santé du Canada Annual Conference will take place June 9th – 11th, 2021 in a virtual format for the very first time. While we wish all of you could join us in beautiful Winnipeg, Manitoba for the conference, we are striving to bring as much of 'The Meeting Place' to you as possible.

Our conference planning committee has worked tirelessly to bring you a conference full of engaging content– with thought provoking keynotes, continuing education sessions that delve into timely topics, and presenters keeping you informed on the latest developments in health information settings across Canada.

We have done our best to recreate the in-person conference experience as much possible, and encourage you to take advantage of all that our conference has to offer, including small discussion groups, networking events, social activities and more!

The virtual conference will feature:

- 4 keynote presentations
- 22 contributed paper sessions
- 3 continuing education sessions
- 2 interactive workshops
- Breakout discussion groups
- Special Interest Group networking
- First Timer's event
- Social events
- Lightning talks
- Poster presentations & interactive poster hall

We look forward to welcoming you virtually to Winnipeg!

Winnipeg is located on the original lands of the Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota and Dene peoples, and on the homeland of the Métis Nation. We respect the Treaties that were made on these territories, we acknowledge the harms and mistakes of the past, and we dedicate ourselves to move forward in partnership with Indigenous communities in a spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.

CONFERENCE 2021: THE MEETING PLACE

WELCOME MESSAGE FROM YOUR 2020-2021 CHLA/ABSC PRESIDENT

Each year health librarians connect at CHLA/ABSC's conference to share their knowledge, network with colleagues and learn valuable information that is timely and relevant. Over this past year, the pandemic has caused us to be creative in how we meet and connect with colleagues and friends and our conference is no different. The theme for this year's conference, which will be our first virtual conference, is "The Meeting Place." This theme makes reference to the historic role of The Forks, where the two rivers meet in Winnipeg, and "as a gathering place for Indigenous nations, and later for Métis people, voyageurs, and non-Indigenous people".¹ I feel that this is an especially apt theme as the virtual format has allowed a greater number of people from around the world to come together, to share and learn not just about health librarianship but about issues related to Indigenous matters, as well as equity, diversity and inclusion in healthcare and libraries.

While we wish we could all gather in Winnipeg, Manitoba as originally planned, I would like to extend a huge thank you to the Winnipeg Conference Planning Committee that has worked extremely hard over the last year and has ensured that much of the spirit of Winnipeg is incorporated into the conference. I am especially looking forward to the social events, including polar bear yoga (live from the Winnipeg Zoo), and drag queen trivia! I am impressed with the number of first timers attending this year's conference, more than we have ever had before, and from as far afield as the Philippines and Australia. We have a special event planned to help our first-time attendees connect with us and each other.

Presentations and continuing education sessions have been chosen to expand your knowledge and provide practical approaches and information that you can incorporate into your workday. Vendor lightning talks will help keep you up-to-date on tools and resources, and interest group discussions will provide plenty of opportunities to engage on a variety of topics. Last but not least, we also have a great line-up of keynote speakers to round out the program. While I wish I could see you all in person, I look forward to seeing you virtually!

CHLA/ABSC CONFERENCE 2021: THE MEETING PLACE

SUSTAINABILITY

The Conference Planning Committee has made a commitment to incorporate sustainability principles in planning and delivering the 2021 conference. Though we are meeting virtually this year, online conferences still have an impact on the environment, and the food we eat also has a significant impact due to the carbon impact of diets. That's why we are recommending the purchase of carbon offsets to mitigate this impact. We know there are concerns regarding the effectiveness of carbon offset, but we also know that the right program can be effective in the climate crisis fight. We are recommending the purchase of an offset from an organization that lists projects that meet the standard of additionality, a crucial component for effective and meaningful carbon offsets.

Gold Standard is just one such organization: if you don't see a project you are interested in, or you know of a different organization, consider making a donation there.

What to do:

1. Go to the Gold Standards Projects site and select a project to support
2. Buy one tonne of offsets
3. Tell us about your purchase. Do you have another offset you want to use? Great! Tell us about that purchase too!

If carbon offsets don't work for you, consider other options to decrease your environmental impact:

1. Leave the car at home and cycle, walk, or take public transportation if you are going to work while attending the conference. Record the number of kilometers traveled where you walked or cycled when you normally would have taken the car. Let's see how many kilometers we can cover during the conference! Sign up.
2. Try a vegetarian or vegan menu during the conference. One of the most direct impacts that you can have with regards to the climate crisis is switching to a vegan diet. Share your favourite vegan/vegetarian meals with other conference attendees.
